AT THE M. E. CHURCH PARSONAGE.

The condition of things at the M. E. church parsonage, this city, is much improved. As soon as the malady was discovered nearly two weeks ago, all the younger children were taken away and have not yet returned home. These children and the members of the family who remained with the sick child, are quite well, with no indications of a new outbreak. Upon the death of the child last Friday morning, all the clothing worn by the family was burned, including all the bedding, bedstead, chairs, and every thing in the room, till absolutely nothing remained but the bare floor, walls and stove. The house was then thoroughly fumigated with the most powerful disinfectants and the burning of sulphur. This has been repeated from time to time and the whole premises overhauled, everything loose being confined to the fire. Slicked lime, carbolic acid and sulphur fumes have been used without stint. The church above and below, and in every part has been subjected to the most rigid purification in order to prevent any bad results. Dr. Reynolds says there is now absolutely no danger to the public in going to the church or parsonage; accordingly the Thursday prayer meeting will be held in the church as usual to-morrow evening, and the pastor, Rev. C. E. Cline, will preach in the church next Sunday morning and evening. Everybody invited.

A CROOK CORRALED.

A man who gave his name as Theo. Cramer will be remembered as having been arrested some weeks ago for robbing Mrs. Burton, of this city, of several articles. In view of his returning the greater part of the stuff and other facts connected with the case, he was then allowed to plead guilty of petit larceny and was punished therefor. He was afterward bound over as a witness against another man accused of a crime and was kept in jail. Sheriff Crookman was satisfied that the fellow was a tough thief and that the coat and vest he wore were stolen property, so he began an investigation. He wrote to Chief of Police Parrish, of Portland, and found that Cramer, who registered there as Theo. Chapel, had stolen numerous articles from boarding houses, among them a coat and vest, a sample of the cloth of which Chief Parrish sent to Sheriff Crookman last night. The chain is complete, the cloth being exactly the same as that of "Cramer's" coat and vest, and Chief Parrish will be taking his bird down there for trial. The man against whom Cramer was held as a witness failed of indictment, and had it not been for Sheriff Crookman's foresight this thief would be let loose on the community to-day to ply his nefarious trade. This will be a good riddance.

LOST IN HER OWN CITY.

A lady who lives just outside of the city limits, and yet within the city, was found down last night and took a street car and instructed the car men to let her off at a certain street. The car men either misunderstood the street or else she got off at the wrong street. She seemed to have been a little turned round and instead of going towards her home she went in the opposite direction. She soon discovered that she was on the wrong street to take her home, so she turned up another street, which was still taking her from home. She soon met a gentleman and inquired of him where she was, and if he could direct her home. In directing her it was discovered that she was greatly excited and badly bewildered, the gentleman kindly consented to accompany her home. When within a block of her own home she did not know which way to go, and at her own gate she had to look for a minute before the location would become natural. The lady has lived in Salem a number of years and is highly respected, and she thought that she was well acquainted with the city, but the darkness and getting off of the car at a different street than what she thought, all taken together, got her completely turned round.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

An interesting Session—Program of the Work of the Convention—General Notes.

The state convention of the Christian Endeavor society has been in session at the First Congregational church, in this city, beginning its work Tuesday night. There are a number of prominent speakers from abroad in attendance and the work has been crowned with success.

The following is the program which was arranged for Tuesday's exercises and was carried out with but few changes:

9:00 to 9:15—Devotional exercise, by Rev. Robert Whitaker of Salem.
 9:15 to 9:42—Reading of Minutes and Reports of officers and committees.

9:45 to 11:00—Reports of societies, 11:00 to 12:00—New and unfinished business.

2:00 to 2:15—Devotional exercises, by Mr. F. C. Whitten, of Forest Grove.

2:15 to 2:30—Paper on the work of the Lookout committee, by Mrs. Kate M. Aitken, of Albany.

2:30 to 2:45—Discussion.
 2:45 to 3:00—Paper on the work of the Prayer-meeting committee, by Mr. Richard Hargreave, of Oregon City.

3:00 to 3:15—Discussion.
 3:15 to 3:30—Paper on the work of Social committee, Miss Emma Dickinson, of Portland.

3:30 to 3:45—Discussion.
 3:45 to 4:15—Pastors' half-hour. What has the Endeavor society done for your church, by all pastors present.

5:15 to 5:00—Election of officers.
 7:30 to 8:00—Song service.

8:00 to 8:30—Addresses, by clergymen and others on the workings of the Christian Endeavor Union.

8:30 to 9:00—Parting words, which benefit have I received from this convention.

SHUT DOWN.—The Salem cannery has shut down for the season, after having operated for four months with very satisfactory results.

The cannery has handled an immense lot of fruit and has distributed considerable money among the farmers. The evaporator is still running with full force and will probably not close down for the season until the first of December.

FIRST IN OUR CITY.—It is true, Salem has now a first class house in nearly every line of goods and this fact is drawing trade to our city from all parts of the valley. One such house, that keeps up its stock in every department with the newest and the eastern market affords, and a firm which never new trade all the time and wins new customers once gained, is a benefit to every resident of the city where located.

Such a house Johnson, Boothby & Co., the Salem clothiers, fairly claims to be.

CANNOT STAY AWAY.—Mr. F. T. Crews, the cigar maker, who went from here to Marshfield some months ago, is expected back here in a few days to make Salem his permanent abiding place. What business he will enter is not yet known, but Mr. Crews is a desirable citizen and will be heartily welcomed back.

A man who has tasted of Salem's pleasures, socially and commercially, is hard to please in any other locality.

DIVORCES.—Linn county, with its 16,000 inhabitants, has thirteen divorce cases on its court docket for the term commencing next week, while this county, with its 22,000 inhabitants, had only ten cases of like character in the present term of court. Verily marriage must be almost a failure in Linn county.

The successful merchant is a practical man who studies how to give his customers the latest and best in his line at a fair profit. That is the kind of a man Konrad, the Klothier is said to be by his customers.

LOOK OUT.—Watch to-morrow for the advertisement of the Boston Quintette club, which plays at Reed's next Tuesday night. This is the finest musical combination in the country, and needs few words of praise.

WEDDINGS.—Those contemplating entering into the mysteries of twoside should buy their shoes of Klein and forever be happy. 211 Commercial street. 10-20-3d

The most charming effects in house decorations are produced by the novelties in modern furniture. They are at the same time useful and to be had in great variety and at fair prices at Buren's. dlt.

Deafness Can't be Cured by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

HAS HAD ENOUGH.

Al. W. Herron, who has occupied the position of stock inspector for this county the past two years, to-day deposited with County Judge Waldo his resignation, to take effect the 1st of next month. He says he has had enough of it, there being no pay in it commensurate with the work, but a great deal of undesired "coming." Mr. Herron has made a conscientious, intelligent officer, and his place will be hard to fill. The duties of the stock inspector do not seem to be fully understood or appreciated by the people, and in carrying out the orders of the state live stock commission, he meets with unpleasant experience, the people seeming to think he is acting on his own motion. A firm, fearless man is required for the place.

TRADE CARNIVAL.—The ladies of the Unitarian church are engaged in preparing a grand entertainment for Thanksgiving evening at the opera house. The exact nature of the affair is not yet determined upon, but it will be something of the nature of a trades or merchants' carnival. Many of Salem's business men have already consented to take part, and it will no doubt develop into something rare and novel in the way of home amusement.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Thede Potter is greeting old Salem friends to-day while making a home visit.

Rev. Robt. Whitaker and wife took the delayed overland for Portland to-day.

T. G. Perkins, of the Salem iron works, was a passenger to Yaquina this morning.

Deputy Sheriff A. T. Wain went down to Gervais this morning and took breakfast in that burg.

Ex-Gov. and Mrs. Z. F. Moody took the north-bound train this morning for Portland and The Dalles.

Miss Stella Skiff went to Portland to-day and will visit with her sister besides enjoying the last days of the exposition.

Hal Patton was among the Salemites who went to enjoy the sights of the metropolis this afternoon.

Deputy Sheriff Wrightman is serving subpoenas in the Woodburn neighborhood this afternoon.

Mr. P. H. Easton, the music dealer, went to Portland this afternoon to look after his branch house there.

Col. J. Kelsey returned home to Corvallis this morning after spending a few days here in attendance of the supreme court.

Commander L. S. Lovell went to Coos county this morning to inspect the military companies in that county.

Mrs. Geo. Hoey returned home this morning from her visit to the metropolis. George stopped over in Oregon City.

Hon. M. L. Chamberlin and Ed. Weller started this afternoon for a trip to Portland, Seattle and other Puget sound points.

Mrs. W. J. Polley, John Brooks, Sr. Geo. E. Good, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, Chas. B. Moore, Prof. Diamond and Judge Walton, were passengers to Portland this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wright were passengers to Portland this morning to visit the parents of Mrs. W. (Surrey) Gen. Byars and wife) and to take in the exposition.

Mrs. F. D. Ford, sister of Mrs. T. J. Cherrington, who has been spending the summer with her sister, left for her home in Kingston, Ohio, on the afternoon train.

Thos. Caplinger, now of Helix, Unumilla county, has been visiting his father J. C. Caplinger and other relatives and friends in this vicinity after twelve years' absence in Eastern Oregon.

Mr. S. Friedman, manager of the Capitol Adventure Co., started to-day for Seattle and Puyallup, to look after business in the stores of the company at those points.

Do not forget the A. O. U. W. social this evening. Besides the delectable supper, there is an excellent literary and musical program and a good time is assured.

Dr. C. W. Hunt, who recently sold his farm near town, accompanied by his family took the afternoon train for Seattle and Port Townsend. The Doctor will be back among us. He expresses delight with this country and its climate and says he will be in here again.

Miss Nellie Boies, Miss Lena Breyman, Miss Minnie Breyman, Mr. R. P. Boies Jr., Mr. Henry Meyers, Mr. Geo. W. Morris and Dr. J. M. Keene made up a pleasant party for Portland this afternoon to attend the wedding of Miss Jessie G. Gill and Mr. John L. Hartman, which takes place there this evening.

Hon. Mark A. Fullerton, a former resident of Salem, now a prominent lawyer at Colfax, Wash., has been in the city visiting old scenes and friends. Mr. Fullerton came within a vote or two of being nominated for supreme judge in the republican state convention this year. He is also one of the U. S. commissioners to settle the disputed boundary line of the Warm Spring Indian reservation.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Margaret Bauer Acquitted of Bigamy—The Grand Jury brings in some indictments—Other Matters.

The trial of Margaret Bauer on indictment for polygamy took all the afternoon, the following jury sitting in patient bearing: Archie Mason, D. W. Gilmore, W. M. Bushey, Freeman Folsom, J. H. Bridges, Jacob Hussey, N. J. Buff, N. O. Parrish, Amos Beach, H. Barendrick, C. W. Cherrington, Robert Hickey.

The line of defense was that her former husband, Frank Bauer, the prosecuting witness, had a wife or wives in Germany when she married him and that therefore the marriage with him was null and void and that she had a perfect right to marry again. (Her present husband's name is Dickman.) Judge Pratt and Capt. Hunt, her attorneys, made an able effort in her behalf, the former making an eloquent and powerful address to the jury. Dist. Atty. Hingham and Deputy D'Arcy prosecuted the case in an earnest and gentlemanly manner.

The law as given to the jury by the court left little doubt that the defendant would be acquitted, and so it proved. The jury was out but a few minutes when a verdict of acquittal was returned.

The grand jury came into court a little after five o'clock and made a report, Foreman Parmenter transmitting their papers to the Judge and reporting that they had further business, whereupon they were instructed to return and proceed.

Court adjourned to Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

The Great Majority

Of cases of scrofula and other blood diseases are hereditary, and therefore difficult to cure. But we wish to state in the most positive, emphatic manner that Hood's Sarsaparilla does cure scrofula in every form. The most severe cases, too terrible for description, have yielded to this medicine when all others failed. If you suffer from impure blood in any way, take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

A Word to Ladies.

Ladies who desire a beautiful clear skin, free from pimples, boils, blotches and eruptions, should commence at once to use Dr. Quinn's Improved Liver Pills.
